

In the Supreme Court of Georgia

Decided: SEP 05 1991

IN THE MATTER OF RICHARD E. COLLAR, JR.
(Supreme Court Disciplinary No. 880)

Per curiam.

Acting pursuant to State Bar Rule 4-106, respondent Richard E. Collar filed with the State Bar of Georgia a petition for voluntary surrender of his license to practice law. A special master was appointed and determined that respondent had been convicted in Gwinnett County Superior Court of the offense of child molestation, a felony. Respondent admitted and the special master found that the conviction was a violation of Standard 66 of Bar Rule 4-102 (d). The special master recommended that respondent's petition for voluntary surrender of his license be approved.

The petition for voluntary surrender is granted.

All the Justices concur.
