

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE
GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
16G1030

IN THE MATTER OF)
)	CENSURE
JONATHAN A. FINE,) ATTORNEY AT LAW)

On April 20, 2017, the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by the North Carolina State Bar. The grievance was assigned to a Subcommittee, which thoroughly reviewed the results of the State Bar staff's investigation of this matter.

Pursuant to section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Subcommittee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Subcommittee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure.

A censure is a written form of discipline more serious than a reprimand, issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused significant harm or potential significant harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require suspension of the attorney's license.

The Grievance Committee believes that a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission is not required in this case and issues this censure to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this censure.

You continued to engage in the practice of law after the suspension of your license to practice despite accepting service of the Order of Administrative Suspension on March 29, 2016 as well as being advised via letter on April 29, 2016 of the wind-down period. On August 3, 2016, you filed a pleading entitled "Defendants Law Offices of Don Pumphrey, Jr., LLC and Law Offices of Don Pumphrey, Jr. P.A. Motion to Dismiss, Answer, and Defenses" in Mecklenburg County Superior Court, File No: 16-CVS-8482.

By practicing law without an active license in at least five cases, you engaged in the unauthorized practice of law in violation of Rule 5.5(a). Moreover, by holding out to others as able to practice law despite not being actively licensed to do so, you made misleading statements regarding the services you could provide in violation of Rule 7.1(a). You also made a false statement to a tribunal by holding out in the aforementioned filing as an actively licensed attorney in North Carolina despite being suspended at the time in violation of Rule 3.3(a) and Rule 8.4(c). Finally, by charging others legal fees despite not having an active license, you charged or collected an illegal or excessive fee in violation of Rule 1.5(a).

In determining that a censure was appropriate in this case, the Committee took into account the potential for serious harm that is created whenever unlicensed attorneys engage in the unauthorized practice of law and make misleading statements.

You are hereby censured by the North Carolina State Bar for your violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will ponder this censure, recognize the error that you have made, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession. This censure should serve as a strong reminder and inducement for you to weigh carefully in the future your responsibility to the public, your clients, your fellow attorneys and the courts, to the end that you demean yourself as a respected member of the legal profession whose conduct may be relied upon without question.

In accordance with the policy adopted July 23, 2010 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of administrative fees and investigative costs to any attorney issued a censure by the Grievance Committee, an administrative fee in the amount of $350.00 is hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this 10th day of Jun, 2017.

DeWitt "Mac" McCarley, Chair
Grievance Committee
The North Carolina State Bar
