FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER OF DISCIPLINE

This matter was heard on the 10th day of March, 2000 before a hearing committee of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission composed of Joseph G. Maddrey, Kenneth M. Smith, and Jean G. Hauser. The Plaintiff was represented by Clayton W. Davidson, III. The Defendant, Todd E. McCurry, was represented by Alan M. Schneider. The parties stipulated that the hearing panel could simultaneously consider the issues concerning the applicable rule violations and the discipline to be imposed in one phase of the hearing and waived any requirements that the hearing be conducted in separate phases to determine the applicable rule violations and discipline. This hearing was conducted in accordance with that stipulation. Based upon the stipulations, pleadings, and the evidence introduced at the hearing, the hearing committee hereby enters the following:

7. During 1995 and 1996, when the Defendant was not making the required payments to the Internal Revenue Service, the Defendant continued to pay salary to his employee, and continued to pay some other expenses necessary to run his law office.

8. The Defendant failed to timely file with the Internal Revenue Service, personal income tax returns for the tax years 1993 to 1996.
9. On January 12, 1999, the Defendant was charged with two misdemeanor counts of failure to file personal income tax returns for 1995 and 1996 in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203.
10. Pursuant to a plea agreement, the Defendant pled guilty to one misdemeanor count of failure to file a tax return in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203 in a criminal information filed in the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina, file number 1:99CR3-1.
