

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE
GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
99G0477

IN RE: DOUGLAS F. OSBORNE, JR.)
 ATTORNEY AT LAW)
)

CENSURE

On January 20, 2000 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievances filed against you by Thelbert Hylton.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Committee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Committee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not warranted and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure.

A censure is a written form of discipline more serious than a Reprimand, issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused significant harm or potential significant harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require suspension of the attorney's license.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission is not required in this case and issues this censure to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State bar, it is now my duty to issue this censure. I am certain that you will understand fully the spirit in which this duty is performed.

On August 18, 1998, you were appointed to represent the Complainant, Thelbert Hylton, in an appeal of the denial of his Motion for Appropriate Relief.

You failed to perfect Mr. Hylton's appeal in a timely manner. Your failure to handle Mr. Hylton's appeal violated Rule 1.3 and Rule 8.4(d) of the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct of the North Carolina State Bar.

In addition, the North Carolina State Bar sent you a Letter of Notice advising you of Mr. Hylton's grievance in this matter. You did not respond promptly to Mr. Hylton's grievance, which is a violation of Rule 8.1(b) of the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct.

On October 26, 1999, State Bar counsel requested additional information from you regarding this grievance. You were asked to respond to counsel's letter by November 30, 1999. You did not respond to counsel's letter and failed to cooperate with the State Bar Grievance Committee. Your conduct in this regard violated Rule 8.1(b) of the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct.

You are hereby censured by the North Carolina State Bar for your violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will ponder this censure, recognize the error that you have made, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession. This censure should serve as a strong reminder and inducement for you to weigh carefully in the future your responsibility to the public, your clients, your fellow attorneys and the courts, to the end that you demean yourself as a respected member of the legal profession whose conduct may be relied upon without question.

In accordance with the policy adopted October 15, 1981 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of the administrative and investigative costs to any attorney issued a censure by the Grievance Committee, the costs of this action in the amount of $50.00 are hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 15 day of February, 2000.

James K. Dorsett III, Chair
Grievance Committee
