

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

1989
BEFORE THE SECRETARY
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
95 BSR 1

IN THE REINSTATEMENT OF:

J. MARSHALL HAYWOOD

ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT

This matter is before the Secretary of the North Carolina State Bar pursuant to a petition for reinstatement filed on or after February 3, 1995 by J. Marshall Haywood.

It appears from a review of the Consent Order of Discipline entered on July 7, 1994 that petitioner was ordered suspended from the practice of law for two years effective February 20, 1993.

It further appears from the verified petition filed by petitioner that petitioner:

1. Complied with the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar concerning winding down his practice;
2. Complied with the Order of Discipline;
3. Did not engage in the unauthorized practice of law during the period of suspension of his license; and
4. Did not engage in any conduct during the period of suspension constituting grounds for discipline under NCGS § 84-28(b).

After conducting the necessary investigation regarding the compliance of the petitioner with the requirements set forth in § 25(B)(3), counsel for the North Carolina State Bar did not file any objection to the petition within the time required by § 25(B)(4).

THEREFORE, pursuant to § 25(B)(5) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, petitioner was entitled to have his license reinstated from the disciplinary suspension thirty days from the filing of his petition. However, because Haywood was also under an administrative suspension for non-payment of dues and non-compliance with CLE requirements at the end of his disciplinary suspension, no order of reinstatement was entered at that time.

On April 14, 1995, petitioner was reinstated to active status by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar after complying with his dues and CLE requirements.

However, no order was ever entered reinstating petitioner from his disciplinary suspension. Haywood is entitled to have such an order entered nunc pro tunc.

THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. J. Marshall Haywood is reinstated to the practice of law in North Carolina as of April 14, 1995.
2. The license certificate and membership card of J. Marshall Haywood should be returned to him forthwith.

This is the 14th day of April, 1997.

North Carolina State Bar
