

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE
GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
16G0748

IN THE MATTER OF)
)	REPRIMAND
CRAIG O. ASBILL,) ATTORNEY AT LAW)

On July 27, 2017 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by T. N. The grievance was assigned to a Subcommittee, which thoroughly reviewed the results of the State Bar staff's investigation of this matter.

Pursuant to Section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Subcommittee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Subcommittee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand.

In October 2013 you agreed to represent Ms. T. N. regarding her personal injury case. Ms. N. had some difficulty reading and writing English. Consequently, in June 2014, Ms. N. enlisted the aid of her friend, Ms. L. S., in facilitating written communications between you and Ms. N. Ms. S. took on the role of Ms. N.'s advocate and go-between with you regarding the handling of Ms. N.'s case. Ms. S. emailed you on numerous occasions in 2015 and 2016. You often failed to respond to Ms. S.'s emails for many months. Indeed, there was a pattern of delay and lack of diligence in your communications with Ms. N through Ms. S.

In response to this grievance, you stated that Ms. N. did not authorize you to communicate with Ms. S. regarding Ms. N.'s case. There is no evidence to show that you otherwise communicated directly with Ms. N. when Ms. S. requested information about Ms. N's case on her behalf. Rather the evidence shows that you never raised a concern about confidentiality in your few responses to Ms. S.'s requests for information. Furthermore, you did not tell Ms. S. that she should have Ms. N. contact you to authorize further communications with Ms. S.

The Grievance Committee found that your woefully inadequate communications either directly with Ms. N. or through Ms. S. violated Rules 1.3 and 1.4(a)(2)(3)(4) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar for your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted July 23, 2010 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of administrative fees and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, an administrative fee in the amount of $350.00 is hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this the 5th day of August, 2017.

De Witt "Mac" McCarley, Chair
Grievance Committee
