THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR,
Plaintiff

vs.

ROLAND C. BRASWELL, Attorney,
Defendant

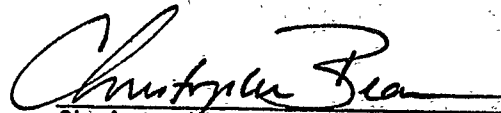

FILED
1978 DEC -8 AM 9:37
B.E. JAMES, SEC
THE N.C. STATE BAR

This matter was scheduled for hearing on December 1, 1978 before a Hearing Committee of The Disciplinary Hearing Commission of The North Carolina State Bar composed of Dudley Humphrey, Jr., Chairman, Winifred T. Wells and Kenyon B. Zahner, Jr. The matter arose from the defendant's timely notice refusing a private reprimand issued by Rivers D. Johnson, Jr., Chairman of the Grievance Committee of The North Carolina State Bar, on May 23, 1978 and requesting that this matter be given a full hearing. Prior to the hearing, the plaintiff, represented by Christopher Bean, and the defendant, Roland C. Braswell, arrived at the following stipulations:

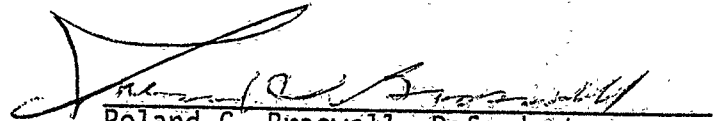

1. That the defendant, Roland C. Braswell, agrees to accept a private reprimand of the Grievance Committee in File Number 78 D 26, said matter originating with a grievance filed by Marvin Ivey on January 23, 1978.
2. That the plaintiff, The North Carolina State Bar, agrees to supplement the private reprimand of May 23, 1978 with further language, as agreed on by the defendant and counsel for the plaintiff, which explicitly states how the defendant neglected his duty to his client, Marvin Ivey.
3. That upon service of the private reprimand issued by the Chairman of the Grievance Committee and acceptance by the defendant, counsel for the plaintiff agrees to enter a voluntary dismissal in the matter, 78 DHC 22, now pending before The Disciplinary Hearing Commission of The North Carolina State Bar.

4. That both the plaintiff and the defendant agree to waive the right to a full hearing in this matter pursuant to the provisions as stated above.

Respectfully submitted this 30 day of November, 1978.

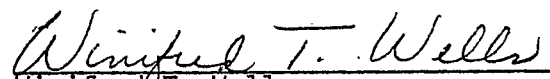

Christopher Bean, Counsel

Roland C. Braswell, Defendant
