NORTH CAROLINA

WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR
97G0599(IV)

IN THE MATTER OF)

BOBBY A. LEDFORD,) ATTORNEY AT LAW)

REPRIMAND

On July 17, 1997, the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar met and considered the grievance filed against you by the North Carolina State Bar.

Pursuant to section .0113(a) of the Discipline and Disability Rules of the North Carolina State Bar, the Grievance Committee conducted a preliminary hearing. After considering the information available to it, including your response to the letter of notice, the Grievance Committee found probable cause. Probable cause is defined in the rules as "reasonable cause to believe that a member of the North Carolina State Bar is guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary action."

The rules provide that after a finding of probable cause, the Grievance Committee may determine that the filing of a complaint and a hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission are not required, and the Grievance Committee may issue various levels of discipline depending upon the misconduct, the actual or potential injury caused, and any aggravating or mitigating factors. The Grievance Committee may issue an admonition, a reprimand, or a censure to the respondent attorney.

A reprimand is a written form of discipline more serious than an admonition issued in cases in which an attorney has violated one or more provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct and has caused harm or potential harm to a client, the administration of justice, the profession, or a member of the public, but the misconduct does not require a censure.

The Grievance Committee was of the opinion that a censure is not required in this case and issues this reprimand to you. As chairman of the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar, it is now my duty to issue this reprimand and I am certain that you will understand fully the spirit in which this duty is performed.

In 1997, you were convicted of failure to file income tax returns for the years 1993 - 1995. For these offenses, you were sentenced to 30 days in jail, suspended for 18 months and were fined $3,000. You were also ordered to perform 150 hours of community service work.

00160

By failing to abide by the state and federal tax laws, you engaged in criminal conduct which reflects adversely on your honesty, trustworthiness or fitness as a lawyer, in violation of Rule 1.2(b) of the Rules of Professional Conduct. But for the fact that you had no prior discipline, were cooperative with the Bar, showed remorse, made efforts to file your returns before you were contacted by the taxing authorities and suffered a substantial criminal penalty for your offenses, the Grievance Committee would likely have referred this matter for hearing before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission.

You are hereby reprimanded by the North Carolina State Bar due to your professional misconduct. The Grievance Committee trusts that you will heed this reprimand, that it will be remembered by you, that it will be beneficial to you, and that you will never again allow yourself to depart from adherence to the high ethical standards of the legal profession.

In accordance with the policy adopted October 15, 1981 by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar regarding the taxing of the administrative and investigative costs to any attorney issued a reprimand by the Grievance Committee, the costs of this action in the amount of $50.00 are hereby taxed to you.

Done and ordered, this 29th day of July, 1997.

Ann Reed
Chair, Grievance Committee
The North Carolina State Bar
