

IN RE:

Reinstatement of Reginald L. Frazier

ORDER

This cause coming on to be heard by the Council of The North Carolina State Bar at its meeting of January 13, 1984, pursuant to a petition by Reginald L. Frazier to be reinstated to the practice of law following the suspension of his license by Order of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission dated September 8, 1981. Based on the evidence before the Council, the Council makes the following FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. An Order was entered by the Disciplinary Hearing Commission suspending the license to practice of Reginald L. Frazier for a period of one year.
2. The order became effective 30 days after its affirmation by the North Carolina Court of Appeals on June 6, 1983. The effective date of the Order is, therefore, July 6, 1983.
3. The petition is requesting reinstatement prior to the elapse of the period of suspension ordered by the Disciplinary Hearing Commission as less than seven months has passed.
4. The petition sets forth no good cause why the Order of suspension should be lifted in advance of its expiration.

Based on the foregoing FINDINGS OF FACT, the Council concludes as a matter of law that the petition should be denied.

Therefore, it is ordered that the petition of Reginald L. Frazier to be reinstated to the practice is denied and the costs of this proceeding are taxed to Reginald L. Frazier.

This the 13th day of January, 1984.
