ORDER

This cause came on to be heard before the Council of The North Carolina State Bar at its meeting on January 13, 1984, pursuant to a petition to reinstate the license to practice of Dallas McPherson. From the evidence before the Council, the Council makes the following FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. The license of Dallas W. McPherson was suspended for a period of one year by an Order of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission dated December 14, 1982.
2. The effective date of the suspension was January 17, 1983.
3. Upon the expiration of the suspension on January 17, 1984, Dallas W. McPherson will have complied with the Order of suspension in all respects.
4. Dallas W. McPherson has complied with Rule 24 of the Discipline and Disbarment Rules of the North Carolina State Bar concerning notice to clients after suspension.
5. Dallas W. McPherson has paid the costs of the proceedings before the Disciplinary Hearing Commission.
6. Dallas W. McPherson has met his burden of showing that he has moral qualifications competency, and learning in law required for admission to practice in this state and the resumption of the practice will be neither detrimental to the standing and integrity of the bar or the administration of justice nor subversive to the public interest.

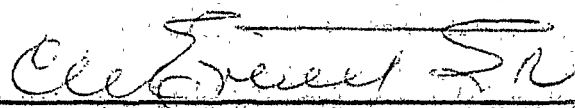

Based upon the foregoing FINDINGS OF FACT, the Council makes the following CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

1. Dallas W. McPherson has complied with the Order of suspension.

2. Dallas W. McPherson has met his burden of showing that he has the moral qualifications, competency, and learning in law required for admission to practice in this state and the resumption of the practice will be neither detrimental to the standing and integrity of the bar or the administration of justice nor subversive to the public interest.
3. Dallas W. McPherson is entitled to reinstatement of his license as of January 17, 1984.

Therefore, it is ordered that the licensed to practice law in North Carolina of Dallas W. McPherson shall be reinstated on January 17, 1984. Dallas W. McPherson is taxed with the costs of these proceedings.

This the 13th day of January, 1984.

C. W. Everett, Sr., President
The North Carolina State Bar
