

In the Supreme Court of Georgia

Decided: APR 29 1996

S96Y1096. IN THE MATTER OF: RICHARD A. BRAMHALL, JR.

PER CURIAM.

Richard A. Bramhall, Jr., filed a petition for voluntary suspension of his license pending final disposition of attorney disciplinary proceedings in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Respondent admitted that the temporary suspension of his license to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania constituted a violation of Standard 67 of Bar Rule 4-102, and is ground for suspension in this State..

The State Bar of Georgia did not object to his petition and proposed suspension. The Review Panel unanimously agreed that the Respondent's petition should be accepted, and recommended that the Respondent be suspended from the practice of law in Georgia until he provides certification to this Court that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has authorized him to practice law without restrictions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We accept the recommendation of the Review Panel. Accordingly, Richard A. Bramhall, Jr., is suspended from the practice of law in this State until he has provided this Court with the certification recommended by the Review Panel. The Respondent is reminded of his duties under Bar Rule 4-219 (c) (1) and (2).

Suspended. All the Justices concur.
