NOW COMES, the Council of the North Carolina State Bar and says the following:

On July 12, 1978 the Grievance Committee of the North Carolina State Bar found probable cause against the above-named defendant for a grievance submitted by the North Carolina State Bar involving an estate in which the accused negligently failed to file a ninety (90) day inventory, even though he had been ordered by a Superior Court Judge to file said inventory.

That defendant tendered his Affidavit of Resignation from the North Carolina State Bar on the 26th day of March, 1979 as a result of an investigation by the State Bar and others of his commission of the crime of embezzlement. Defendant pled guilty to the crime of embezzlement in the Superior Court of Catawba County on February 13, 1979 and is presently serving a term of four (4) years in the North Carolina Department of Correction.

That the defendant was disbarred by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar on April 13, 1979.

THEREFORE, Council for the State Bar under Rule 41 of the Rules of Civil Procedure for the State of North Carolina hereby enters a Voluntary Dismissal with Prejudice.

This the 11th day of May, 1979.
