

In the Supreme Court of Georgia

Decided: January 13, 2015

S14Y0413. IN THE MATTER OF JOHN B. TUCKER.

PER CURIAM.

On June 16, 2014, this Court issued an opinion whereby the respondent in this matter was suspended from the practice of law in Georgia for a period of six months. See In the Matter of John B. Tucker, 295 Ga. 357 (759 SE2d 854) (2014). The period of suspension having expired, and this Court having reviewed the State Bar's Petition Regarding Respondent's Reinstatement filed by the Office of General Counsel of the State Bar of Georgia in this matter, it is hereby ordered that John B. Tucker be reinstated to the practice of law in the State of Georgia upon payment of dues and satisfaction of any CLE requirements, as requested in the Petition.

Reinstated. All the Justices concur.
